

LILLOOET TRIBAL COUNCIL

JOB POSTING

HEALTH ADVOCATE

POSITION SUMMARY

The Aboriginal Health Advocate works closely with Interior Health, the Ministry of Health, and the northern St'át'imc communities to achieve the recommendations from the In Plain Sight Report, the Truth and Reconciliation Calls to Action, and the goals outlined in the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act (DRIPA) Action Plan. The Advocate aligns with BC Patient Safety & Quality Council philosophies that support system-wide leadership to improve the quality of care provided by the Interior Health (IH) and other healthcare providers.

QUALIFICATIONS

- A degree in a relevant field AND five years' experience working in healthcare, inter-governmental relations, negotiations, etc.
- Demonstrated knowledge, experience, and understanding of Aboriginal people and their culture.
- Knowledge of the provincial healthcare system.
- Demonstrated ability to work in a collaborative leadership environment.
- Proven ability to lean-in to difficult conversations.

SALARY: dependent on education and experience

Apply: please submit a cover letter, resume and three references to Andrea Leech, Administrator, Lillooet tribal Council @ 650 Industrial Place, Lillooet or email to: info@lillooettribalcouncil.ca

Any questions please contact: Andrea Leech at (250 256-7523 ext.103 or aleech@lillooettribalcouncil.ca)

This position will be open until filled

Pursuant to section 41 of the BC Human Rights Code, preference will be given to applicants of St'át'imc or Aboriginal ancestry.